Join NASFT for a keynote presentation

Sunday June 28: 8:30 – 9:30am

Inquiries into the Nature of Slow Money: Investing as if Food, Farms and Fertility Mattered

Speaker and Author:
Woody Tasch

Join this eye opening look at our modern food chain and its impact on the economy and stay for a book signing/sale afterwards. Woody Tasch, chairman of Investors Circle, a non-profit network of investors in sustainability-minded early stage companies and venture funds will talk about how the food system can become more specialized, focusing on entrepreneurial growers and producers rather than industrial production.
